

“What would All Saints do?” ... journey of love & giving
ALL SAINTS LUTHERAN CHURCH “Oasis of Joy” USA

Sunday, September 15, 2019

Worship at All Saints is a time of joy, reflection, and celebrating the gifts of love and acceptance.

We are honored by your presence. We enjoy having kids in church. When they get a bit noisy and goofy ... we ask that you please respect the sanctity of our worship experience, and the comfort of our neighbor. We have a fine nursery for kids age 5 and under. Our highly paid and moderately Lutheran staff is always anxious to care for your kids. Please accompany your son/daughter to the nursery, and introduce yourself to the attendants.

welcome ... we all could use a kind word!!

OPENING PRAYER

When he walks into the room ... THE ROOM LIGHTS UP.
Must be his smile ... his calm demeanor ... knowing that his words will be ones lifting us up --- “On Eagles’ wings.”
I guess he has a little “Jesus” in his soul ... “good news” on his lips ... hope in his steps.

Lord, we need more of this ... of course, you know that!!

Negativity wears me down. Sometimes it’s my own negativity. It’s like “the devil grabs hold of my spirit” ... and squeezes out “stuff” that really isn’t me.

I don’t want to look at the “half-empty” part.

I don’t want to criticize, and look for mistakes, and always talk about “what’s wrong.” Help me be an ambassador of goodness ... a messenger of peace ... a person who adds spirit to life, instead of taking it away.

“What would All Saints do?”

Hey, that’s me ---- amen.
