

“When all our stories collide ---- Sunday morning”
ALL SAINTS LUTHERAN CHURCH “Oasis of Joy” USA

Today is Sunday, July 28, 2019

Worship at All Saints is a time of quiet reflection, and hopefully a lot of hope and joy.

We hope your soul is “lifted-up” a bit today. We sure do enjoy having kids in church. When they get a bit goofy and noisy ... we ask you please to respect the sanctity of our worship experience, and the comfort of your neighbor. We have a fine nursery for kids age 5 and under. Our highly paid and moderately festive staff is always anxious to care for your kids. Please accompany your son/daughter to the nursery, and introduce yourself to the attendants. Coffee and hot water for tea await you in Charter Hall.

welcome to all ... maybe an announcement or two??

OPENING PRAYER

Lord, I’m wondering ...

Each day ... I will single-out one person ... someone who has intersected my life. And that person will be in my thoughts and prayers all day long.

Will it make a difference? ... I don’t know.

Will it change anything ... about me? about that person?

Maybe. Probably not.

Well --- who knows, besides you??

I need to get outside my own skin more.

Listen. Care. Give.

Fill the “aire” with good thoughts. Positive thoughts.

Prayers of hope. Words that build-up and don’t tear down.

One person. One prayer. One good thought at a time.

I’ll check in with you later, Lord ...

and let you know how it’s going.

Amen.

Sullilvan – Peggy's step-son and the late Mike Sullivan's son – who 15 years ago this week was killed in action in Iraq. He was a proud Marine.

Tuesday: *Fun-fest with St. Coletta's, 6:30

Thursday: *Evening worship, with the Lord's Supper, 7:30 (outdoors, weather permitting)

50 people came to our "summer supper" this week.
We are having another one: August 22, 6:00 --- before evening worship. Let's have another good turn-out.
You can begin making your rsvp in the narthex.
